

Kavita Dwibedi

Born and brought up in the family of the traditional art practitioners, Kavita Dwibedi is the daughter and disciple of stalwart Odissi maestro Guru Hare Krishna Behera. She is known for her vision and superb abhinaya. She had the privilege of performing in almost all the major dance festivals of India such as Khajuraho, Konark, Mamallapuram, Soorya, Natyanjali, Swaralaya, Natyaveda, Vaddakkunthan, Guruvayur, DIAF, to name a few. A widely traveled danseuse she had a successful ICCR sponsored tour during the 50th year of India's Independence celebrations in Scandinavian countries, UK, USA and Australia. Also she had the opportunity to represent India during the 50 years of Diplomatic Relations between India and Japan. In 2007, she was deputed on behalf of ICCR again to Israel, Croatia, Greece, Jordan and Egypt for the 60th year of India's Independence Celebrations in the Festival of India. Besides this she had been invited by the French Theatre company to participate in their production as a lone Indian artiste. She also conducts Lec-Dems on behalf of SPIC MACAY all over in India. An A grade artiste of Doordarshan, she is also the holder of Junior Fellowship from the Govt. of India. Recipient of many awards, she is the Founder Director of Odissi Akademi, Delhi. On behalf of the Akademi she had been organizing Jayadeva Utsav in the Capital.

E-mail – kavitadwibedi@gmail.com, k_dwibedi@hotmail.com

Web site – www.kavitadwibedi.org

Ph. 011-24603388. Mobile: 9811733885